

The Story of a Rainbow Pledge Girl

It is better by far at the rainbow's end
To find not gold
But the heart of a friend.

I am a Rainbow Pledge Girl.

I pledge myself to a life of love and service.

I do set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be for a token of the covenant between me and the earth.

When I am eleven years old I can become a member of the International Order of the Rainbow for Girls.

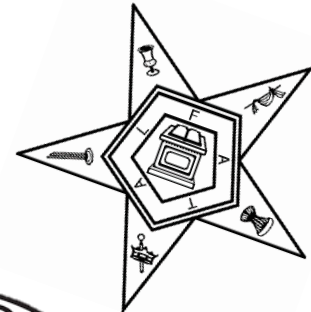

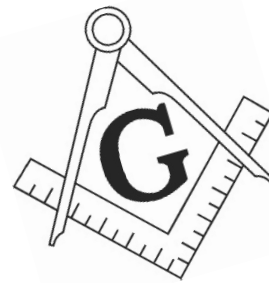

I meet with my Pledge Sisters in the Garden of Color. We wear a pinafore apron, and a dress or a skirt to our meetings.

My Pledge Sisters and I wear symbols on a necklace that represents our office and responsibilities.

I am part of a group of people called Masons. My Masonic Family includes many ages of people from Girls ages 8-21, Boys 13-21, and men and women who belong to many different groups. Where ever I go in the World, I can always find a Masonic Family member.

Rainbow Pledge teaches you to Love your Country and to Respect those who defend it.

I will grow up to become a beautiful young girl, with lots of friends. I will be confident in my abilities and will be happy that I can be of service to people.

I try to help someone every day

As a Pledge Girl I will learn how to act responsibly and become a better person in my home and school.

I learn how to preform
Random Acts of Kindness
